SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT, YEAR A

“Preparing the Way: Welcoming Christ into Our Hearts This Advent”

As we journey through the Second Sunday of Advent, our attention turns to John the Baptist, the courageous herald of Christ. His life challenges us to prepare our hearts to welcome the Lord—not only at Christmas, but every day of our lives.

John’s life was marked by simplicity, courage, and spiritual clarity. He lived in the wilderness, far from comforts and distractions, wearing simple clothing, eating sparingly, and devoting his days to prayer and reflection. This disciplined life allowed him to hear God’s voice clearly and align himself fully with God’s call. John also spoke the truth boldly, calling people to repentance and integrity. He did not seek human approval or comfort yet faced opposition with unwavering trust in God. In our busy, noisy lives, John reminds us that spiritual preparation requires detachment from distractions, honesty in our actions, and courage to follow God’s will.

God takes our sinning seriously. John Steinbeck’s story, The Wayward Bus, tells of a dilapidated bus stranded in the mud. Its passengers take refuge in a cave, and over the entrance is the word REPENT! scrawled in paint. Yet none of the passengers pays attention. Steinbeck shows how easy it is to ignore God’s call to repentance. All too often, this is our story as well. John the Baptist calls us to take sin seriously because God does. Advent is a time to reflect, examine our lives honestly, and turn away from sin so Christ can be reborn in our hearts.

Reconciliation is another key part of preparation. When Leonardo da Vinci painted The Last Supper, he initially used the face of an enemy for Judas Iscariot. While this may have seemed satisfying, da Vinci could not complete the face of Jesus until he reconciled with his rival. Likewise, Advent calls us to let go of anger, resentment, and division so that Christ can dwell fully within us.

Waiting is an essential aspect of Advent. Life requires patience: we wait in lines, in order to purchase groceries; to be served at popular restaurants; to be assisted in a bank; at stop signs and traffic signals; at amusement parks; to see a play or film. Statisticians estimate that in a 70-year life, we spend over three years waiting! Advent invites us to wait with repentant and expectant hearts, allowing God to work within us, shaping our lives, and preparing us for Christ’s daily presence and His final coming.

Finally, Advent is a call to concrete life change. As the German mystic Angelus Silesius reminds us: “Christ could be born a thousand times in Bethlehem – but all in vain unless He is born in me.” John the Baptist challenges us to correct our relationships, act justly, serve others selflessly, and live with integrity. As St. Thérèse of Lisieux and Mother Teresa advise, we are called to “do small things but with great love.” Advent is a journey of repentance, renewal, and humble service.

May this Advent, inspired by John the Baptist, lead us to simplicity, courage, reconciliation, patient waiting, sincere repentance, and selfless love. Let us prepare our hearts to welcome Christ, not only in the Christmas celebrations, but each day, allowing Him to transform our lives and radiate His love through all that we do. John the Baptist prepared the way—may we do the same.

Fr Sebastian

Bishop's Christmas Appeal

Christmas is drawing near, and with it the promise that God is with us. For many in Western Sydney and the Blue Mountains, that promise is needed right now. Many individuals and families are carrying grief, stress and uncertainty – wrestling with the rising cost-of-living, unstable work and the heartbreak of losing a loved one. Your generosity is the way to open the doors of hope for the broken-hearted ensuring that no one in our community grieves alone.

Please give generously at parracatholic.org/appeal or scan the QR code or pick up an envelope located at all pews. Thank you.

Exciting News

Thanks to the Community Building Partners Program of the NSW Government, Our Lady Queen of Peace Parish, received funding to create a shaded outdoor community area just in front of the Youth Room.

The morning of Saturday 6th December, poles will be placed. This needs 28 days to set. During which time, we ask if you can please be careful to not touch the poles to ensure they set correctly.

A bordering garden will be installed this week. And early January, the sail shades will be installed and tables placed around.

We'd like to extend our thanks to Dr Hugh McDermott, our State Member for Prospect, who has worked with us to receive this grant.

FEAST DAYS

This week we celebrate

8th Monday The IMMACULATE CONCEPTION of the BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

13th Saturday St Lucy, virgin, martyr
